Listen carefully with your eyes closed to any sounds you can hear. After one minute, open your eyes and write down everything you heard.

Ring a bell or make a lasting noise with another instrument or method.

Listen very carefully to the fading sound until you are sure you can no longer hear it.

Ask someone to drop a feather and watch it very closely as it floats to the ground.

Listen carefully to a piece of music and draw a line on a piece of paper which matches the feeling created by the music.

Close your eyes and ask a partner to pass you an object that you can hold in your hands.

Touch and turn the object, describing each aspect in detail to your partner and then swap places.

Lie comfortably on your back on the floor. Move your attention around your body by tensing and clenching your muscles and then relaxing them. Hunch your shoulders, then let them go.

Make your hands into fists then tighten the muscles in your arms before relaxing them. Continue to move around your body repeating this process.

When you are eating, slow the process right down and try to activate all your senses. Look carefully at your food before you eat it.

What does it look like? Bring it closer so you can smell it. What does it smell like?

As you place it in your mouth, be aware of the texture of the food and how it feels.

What does it taste like? Does the taste come in successive waves or all at once? Can you recognise the individual ingredients?

Take a walk and concentrate on the act of walking.
What movements does each leg perform in each stride?

Which part of your foot hits the ground first?

What does the ground feel like underneath your shoe/foot?

Choose a subject to focus your thoughts or simply write about whatever arises in your mind.

If you can't think of what to write then write 'I can't think of what to write...'

Do whatever you need to in order to keep writing.

Listen really carefully to what someone else is saying.

Stop doing anything else and give them your complete attention.

If you think of things you wish to say, let the speaker finish before you add your thoughts.

Take a moment to think about how you are feeling.
Which words would describe how you are feeling?

Can you trace back the origins of those feelings?
